Department of Economic Studies, Pescara, Italy

June 16-18, 2022

Call for Papers

The XXII AISSEC Conference will be held at the Department of Economic Studies (G. D'Annunzio University of Chieti-Pescara), on 16-18th June, 2022. The Conference is organized in partnership with the Turin Centre on Emerging Economies (OEET).

The Conference pursues the mission of the Association, which is the comparison of economic systems. It is meant to gather scholars working in different areas with an aim to exchange ideas on topics related to economic development. The main focus of the XXII edition will be on the drivers of economic development, under a comparative perspective. Both theoretical and empirical contributions are welcomed on issues dealing with (but not limited to):

- Education
- Innovation
- Productivity
- Inequality
- Health
- Institutions
- Green economy/Sustainable development
- Demography/Female employment
- Migration
- Trade/Value chains
- Culture/Social norms/Religion
- Information/Media/Democratization

The list of confirmed keynote speakers includes:

- Simone Borghesi (University of Siena)
- Jean-Philippe Platteau (University of Namur)
- Daria Taglioni (The World Bank)
